Applicant/Rider agreement

I confirm

- That if I am selected for the Championship reining team the above named horse/horses have been vaccinated in accordance with the prevailing federal/FEI rules and veterinary regulations prior to their arrival at the event for which I am selected;
- That the above named horse/horses have not been administered any substance prohibited under FEI rules;
- That the owners of the above named horse/horses have given their full permission for their use in team competition and have read and understood and signed a copy of this document which I enclose with my application.

I agree, as the rider of the horse(s) noted above and applicant:

- To the terms of the selection policy and to accept the decision of the Selection Committee;
- To accept team travel arrangements, directions and instructions of the Chef d'Equipe;
- To attend all team building/training events as directed by the Chef d'Equipe;
- Following selection, to wear the British Team uniform as directed by British Reining/BEF;
- To assist with fund raising/promotional/media activities as reasonably requested by British Reining/Team Great Britain/British Equestrian Federation;
- That if selected for Team Great Britain, I will request permission from the Chef d'Equipe before taking part in any competition with my nominated horse(s) until after the Championship;
- To notify the Chef d'Equipe immediately should I wish to change my nominated horse(s) and to provide a replacement application form signed by myself and the owner;
- That I am willing to travel to any team event as one of six members of Team Great Britain Reining and fully accept that I may be selected as the reserve rider;
- That I am responsible for meeting all costs that cannot be borne by British Reining;
- That the £250.00 administration fee is non-refundable under any circumstances.

I understand that British Reining will cover the expenses of the Chef d'Equipe
